

Exercício do Mês

Elementary

December 2012 Say v. Tell

Complete the sentences with say or tell in the correct tense.

Example: Come on, say something!

1. He believes everything she
2. Could you me the time, please?
3. I can't you how happy I am to see you again.
4. What did you to them?
5. She she had something to do tonight.
6. When I put the children to bed, I them a story.
7. Could you a prayer for me, please?
8. I can't the twin brothers apart.
9. Sorry, I don't understand what you are
10. You should them the truth.
11. The way she expressed it all.
12. He me a lie yesterday.
13. Susan me you have a new boyfriend.
14. How do you this word?
15. Excuse me, may I something?
16. So me, what's your new teacher like?
17. Why don't you something to her?
18. Don't me you're late again!
19. The clock 10 o'clock.
20. Children must do what they are

Elementary

December 2012 Say v. Tell

Complete the sentences with say or tell in the correct tense.

Example: Come on, say something!

1. He believes everything she says.
2. Could you tell me the time, please?
3. I can't tell you how happy I am to see you again.
4. What did you say to them?
5. She said she had something to do tonight.
6. When I put the children to bed, I tell/told them a story.
7. Could you say a prayer for me, please?
8. I can't tell the twin brothers apart.
9. Sorry, I don't understand what you are saying.
10. You should tell them the truth.
11. The way she expressed said it all.
12. He told me a lie yesterday.
13. Susan tells me you have a new boyfriend.
14. How do you say this word?
15. Excuse me, may I say something?
16. So tell me, what's your new teacher like?
17. Why don't you say something to her?
18. Don't tell me you're late again!
19. The clock says/said 10 o'clock.
20. Children must do what they are told.