

Elementary

September 2012 Prepositions (of time, movement, place)

Complete the sentences with prepositions.

Example: John lives in England.

1. Jane arrived school exactly eight o'clock.
2. The café is the station so you need to walk the street.
3. I usually go work car, but sometimes I go foot.
4. Peter stays home weekends.
5. Alex doesn't go school Sundays.
6. Leave the books the table the computer.
7. Martin was born Manchester 3rd November 1990.
8. We were holiday August.
9. She walked one end of the avenue the other.
10. Anne walked the main road and turned right the supermarket.
11. The cinema is high street, the café and the shoe shop.
12. He wrote the phone number a piece of paper and put it his pocket.
13. The cat is hiding me the sofa.
14. I'll see you school two weeks' time.
15. They got the bus here and got the second stop.
16. There is a picture the wall the fireplace.

Elementary

September 2012 Prepositions (of time, movement, place)

Complete the sentences with prepositions.

Example: John lives in England.

1. Jane arrived at school at exactly eight o'clock.
2. The café is opposite the station so you need to walk across the street.
3. I usually go to work by car, but sometimes I go on foot.
4. Peter stays at home at weekends.
5. Alex doesn't go to school on Sundays.
6. Leave the books on the table next to the computer.
7. Martin was born in Manchester on 3rd November 1990.
8. We were on holiday in August.
9. She walked from one end of the avenue to the other.
10. Anne walked along the main road and turned right at the supermarket.
11. The cinema is in high street, between the café and the shoe shop.
12. He wrote the phone number on a piece of paper and put it in his pocket.
13. The cat is hiding behind me under the sofa.
14. I'll see you at school in two weeks' time.
15. They got on the bus here and got off at the second stop.
16. There is a picture on the wall above the fireplace.